

THE RIVERFRONT RENAISSANCE CENTER FOR THE ARTS
ADVANCE NOTIFICATION POLICY

The Riverfront Renaissance Center for the Arts (RRCA) strives to make its exhibitions, programs and facilities accessible to all our patrons. The RRCA is committed to providing every available resource to our visitors regardless of their disabilities.

If a visitor needs special accommodations in the RRCA facility or in reference to an RRCA program, they must speak with the RRCA Executive Director to discuss accommodation possibilities at least two weeks prior to needing the assistance.
