OPENING RECEPTION: FRIDAY, May 17, 6pm - 9pm

Abstraction when taken to its fullest liberty becomes non-representational and abandons the real world. The elements of line, shape, color, value, texture and space become key in the building blocks of non-representational works. Non-representational works celebrate the elements with little or no tether to the real world or perhaps create a fantasy world. Let's celebrate the elements of art in all media in highly abstracted art! ALL media welcome including sculpture and photography.

1st Place - $100
